Educational Purpose

International Scripture Ministries, Inc. ("ISM"), is a New Mexico non-profit corporation which has received Internal Revenue Service recognition as a 501(c)(3) charitable entity.

As a religious and educational organization, ISM's mission is to provide, through prayer, healing and comfort to those dealing with afflictions, whether those afflictions are physical, mental or spiritual, and to teach Christian religious principles to the general public.

Through ownership and operation of a radio station, ISM will be able to broadcast religious educational and instructional materials to the public and to present programs of how Christian religious principles can be applied to the problems of everyday life.

More specifically, ISM plans to broadcast half-hour (or longer) religious educational programs on a daily basis. The station will also present public service announcements and other short-form programming to assist the audience in dealing with moral issues in their daily lives and to provide information, inspiration and comfort to its listeners. ISM also plans on broadcasting community events from time to time.
