In re: KBOZ(AM), Bozeman, MT
Facility ID No. 16775
Renewal Application File No. 0000126487
(filed November 19, 2020)

Dear Licensee:

We have before us your application (Application) for renewal of the license for AM Station KBOZ, Bozeman, Montana (Station).¹ For the reasons set forth below, we grant the Application for a renewal period of one year from the date of this letter, instead of a full term of eight years, pursuant to section 309(k)(2) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (Act).²

Background. You filed the Application on November 19, 2020, having been appointed by a court to be receiver for the Station,³ seeking to renew the Station's license. Based on our review of the Application and related Commission records, we find that the Station was silent for almost three years of its license term starting on April 1, 2013, and ending on April 1, 2021, and has been silent since April 27, 2020.⁴

Discussion. Silence instead of operation in accordance with a station's FCC authorization is a fundamental failure to serve a broadcast station's community of license, because a silent station offers that community no public service programming such as news, public affairs, weather information, and Emergency Alert System notifications. Moreover, brief periods of station operation sandwiched between prolonged periods of silence are of little value because the local audience is not accustomed to tuning into the station's frequency.⁵

¹ Application File No. 0000126487. The Station also has pending a renewal application filed February 3, 2012. File No. BR-20121203ALX. We grant that application subject to the conditions specified below.

² 47 U.S.C. § 309(k)(2). The grant of this application will be conditioned upon (a) resumption of the Station's operation pursuant to a valid Commission authorization on or before April 26, 2021, and (b) payment in full of the outstanding regulatory fees owed to the Commission for the Station and the other radio stations included in the pending assignment of license application for those stations, within twenty days of the grant of that assignment of license application. See Application File No. 0000157563.

⁵ See Radioactive, LLC, Hearing Designation Order, 32 FCC Rcd 6392, para. 2 (2017).

The basic duty of broadcast licensees to serve their communities is reflected in section 309(k) of the Act.⁶ That section provides that if, upon consideration of a station's license renewal application and related pleadings, we find that (1) the station has served the public interest, convenience, and necessity; (2) there have been no serious violations of the Act or the rules; and (3) there have been no other violations which, taken together, constitute a pattern of abuse, we are to grant the renewal application.⁷ If, however, the licensee fails to meet that standard, the Commission may deny the application – after notice and opportunity for a hearing under section 309(e) of the Act – or grant the application “on terms and conditions that are appropriate, including a renewal for a term less than the maximum otherwise permitted.”⁸

In 2001, the Commission cautioned “all licensees that . . . a licensee will face a very heavy burden in demonstrating that it has served the public interest where it has remained silent for most or all of the prior license term.”⁹ It also acknowledged the agency's longstanding policy to encourage stations to resume broadcast operations when license renewal applications were pending. However, the Commission noted that section 309(k)(1) applies a “backwards-looking standard” that does not give any weight to efforts to return a station to full-time operation in the future.¹⁰ The Commission held that denial of the renewal application of the station in question in Birach would be fundamentally unfair because the Commission had not provided sufficient notice of the effect the section 309(k)(1) standard would have on silent stations.¹¹ Since the issuance of the Birach decision in 2001, licensees have been on notice as to how section 309(k)(1) applies to silent stations.

In this case, Licensee's conduct has fallen short of that which would warrant routine license

⁶ 47 U.S.C. § 309(k). See also 47 U.S.C. § 312(g) (the license of any station that fails to transmit broadcast signals for any consecutive 12-month period expires automatically at the end of that period, unless extended or reinstated). In addition to its enforcement of sections 309(k) and 312(g) of the Act, the Commission has stressed its interest in promoting efficient use of radio broadcast spectrum for the benefit of the public in several different contexts. See Policies to Promote Rural Radio Service and to Streamline Allotment and Assignment Procedures, Third Report and Order, 26 FCC Rcd 17642, 17645, para. 7 (2011) (citing the Commission's “fundamental interest” in expediting new radio service and preventing “warehousing” of scarce spectrum); 1998 Biennial Regulatory Review – Streamlining of Mass Media Applications, Rules, and Processes, Report and Order, 13 FCC Rcd 23056, 23090-93, paras. 83-90 (1998), on reconsideration, 14 FCC Rcd 17525, 17539, paras. 35-36 (1999); Liberman Broad. of Dallas License LLC, Letter, 25 FCC Rcd 4765, 4768 (MB 2010).

⁷ 47 U.S.C. § 309(k)(1). The renewal standard was amended to read as described by section 204(a) of the Telecommunications Act of 1996, Pub. L. No. 104-104, 110 Stat. 56 (1996). See Implementation of sections 204(a) and 204(c) of the Telecomm. Act of 1996, Order, 11 FCC Rcd 6363 (1996).

⁸ 47 U.S.C. §§ 309(k)(2), 309(k)(3).

⁹ See Birach Broad. Corp., Memorandum Opinion and Order, 16 FCC Rcd 5015, 5020, para. 13 (2001) (Birach).

¹⁰ Id. at para. 12 (“[C]onsideration of post-term developments is fundamentally at odds with this backwards-looking standard.”).

renewal. Licensee's stewardship of the Station fails to meet the public service commitment which licensees are expected to provide to their communities of license on a daily basis because the Station was silent for a significant portion of the license term.¹²

On the facts presented here, we conclude that a short-term license renewal for the Station is the appropriate sanction. Although the Station sought Commission authorization for each of the periods of silence, we cannot find that the Station served the public interest, convenience and necessity during the license term due to the extended periods of non-operation. Accordingly, pursuant to section 309(k)(2) of the Act, we will grant the Station a short-term license renewal, limited to a period of one year from the date of this letter.¹³ This limited renewal period will afford the Commission an opportunity to review the Station's public service performance, as well as compliance with the Act and the FCC's rules, and to take whatever corrective actions, if any, that may be warranted at that time.

Conclusion. Accordingly, for the reasons set forth above, IT IS ORDERED THAT the license renewal application (Application File No. 0000126487) filed by Richard J. Samson, as Receiver for Radio Station KBOZ(AM), Bozeman, Montana, IS GRANTED pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 309(k)(2), for a license term of one year from the date of this letter, subject to the following condition: the outstanding regulatory fees owed to the Commission for KBOZ(AM) and the other radio stations included in the pending assignment of license application for those stations must be paid in full within twenty days of the grant of that assignment of license application (Application File No. 0000157563). (Note: the date set in this letter for the new license term supersedes any notice generated from the FCC Licensing and Management System (LMS).)
