

As a religious broadcaster with a religious qualification required of all employees, Radio Vision Cristiana Management was not required to perform any outreach initiatives during the last two years.