

Community Activities	Date(s)	Location	Narration of Type and Description
Champions of Courage Black History Month Essay Competition	February	N/A	WNUV commemorates Black history Month by celebrating positive role models who continue to keep Dr. King's dream alive through their commitment to youth and life that demonstrates the lessons and legacy of Dr. King. Maryland students grades 6 -12 were challenged to write a 90-word essay saluting their Champion of Courage. More than 1000 entries were received and 15 were selected by a panel of judges.
Toys for Tots Holiday	November December	WNUV studios	WNUV joined with the few, the proud, The Marines for TOYS FOR TOTS! The Marines provide new Christmas toys for 60,000 children in the metro area. A Toys for Tots collection box was in our lobby for our employees to donate new unwrapped toys.