

KREM
2021 Children's Television Programming Report

Preemption Notifications

During 2021, KREM encountered technical issues with its on-air crawl notifications. Some on-air notifications about changes in children's programming were scheduled to air in accordance with the FCC's Rules, but due to these technical difficulties, the notifications did not air. All rescheduled episodes aired with seven days of the preempted episodes.