

Compliance with International Agreement

The facility contemplated herein is located approximately 122.9 km away from the border between the United States and Mexico. The ERP has been limited to 50 watts to comply with the international agreement. Also, the contour for the proposed facility matches the licensed facility exactly to ensure compliance.