FCC Violations

Scripps Broadcasting Holdings LLC (“Scripps”) is the licensee of KRIS-TV, Corpus Christi, Texas (the “Station”). On May 1, 2019, Cordillera Communications, LLC (“Cordillera”) transferred control of the licensee of the Station to Scripps Media, Inc. pursuant to the Commission’s approval of a long form transfer of control application (BTCCDT-20181109AAU). Scripps Media, Inc. immediately thereafter assigned the Station’s license to Scripps pursuant to the Commission’s approval of a pro forma assignment of license (BALCDT-20181113ABN).

Before the sale occurred, the Commission began an investigation into Cordillera’s compliance with the Commission’s tower rules. Following the consummation of Scripps’ acquisition of the Station, Scripps and the Enforcement Bureau entered into a Consent Decree to resolve the investigation into Cordillera’s acts and omissions. See DA 20-24, rel. January 13, 2020. Since the violations described in the Consent Decree are not attributable to Scripps, those violations are not relevant to the FCC’s consideration of the instant application.
