

Purpose of Application

This minor change to the underlying construction permit requests lowering the proposed antenna from 76 meters AGL to 65 meters AGL in order to combine with an existing antenna on the tower.

There is no substantive changes made to the technical parameters already approved in the underlying construction permit and all of the certifications of compliance made in the original application remain intact with this minor change.