

This modification requests a move to a tower that is in Kaibito, the community of license. With this move the antenna becomes non-directional thus simplifying the construction of the station. Reasonable assurance has been provided for the use of this tower for this purpose.