EMF Multiple Ownership Exhibit

Educational Media Foundation ('EMF') is the licensee or permittee of noncommercial educational stations throughout the United States, see attached noncommercial educational certification.

EMF will prepare and file a modification of license application to convert the station to noncommercial educational stations as it regularly does with the commercial stations it acquires. Accordingly, the Commission’s multiple ownership rules are inapplicable to this application and EMF'S acquisition of this station is consistent with the Commission’s rules.