

Multiple Ownership

The Assignee and its attributable parties do not currently hold any attributable interests in any broadcast station.

If the proposed assignment is approved and consummated, WASQ-LP would be the only radio station in which the assignee and its attributable parties would have an attributable interest, and the assignee and its attributable parties will continue to have no attributable interests in any television station. Accordingly, the proposed assignment complies with the Commission's multiple ownership rules.

* * * * *