

Multiple Ownership Showing (WHLN & WBWX)

The instant application proposes the assignment of WHLM(AM), FI 12465, Bloomsburg, PA and WBWX (AM), FI 27001, Berwick, PA to Southern Belle, LLC. Southern Belle, LLC (and its operating company, Seven Mountains Media, LLC) is the licensee of 3 stations in the Wilkes Barre/Scranton market; WVPO(AM), FI 47423, Stroudsburg, PA, WSBG(FM), FI 47424, Stroudsburg, PA and WLGD(FM), FI 19564, Dallas, PA and is the proposed assignee of Radio Station WARM(AM), FI 70504, Scranton, PA pursuant to File No. 0000180371, presently pending.

Attached is Nielsen Metro Survey report for the Wilkes Barre/Scranton Radio Market which reflects that there are 39 radio stations in the market. While WBWX is not listed, Berwick is within Columbia County which is part of the Wilkes Barre – Scranton Nielsen Metro. See attached Wikipedia page.

The instant application proposes that Southern Belle, LLC own 6 stations in the market, 4 AM and 2 FM.

Pursuant to 47.3555 (a) (ii), in a radio market with between 30 and 44 (inclusive) full-power, commercial and noncommercial radio stations, a licensee can own not more than 7 commercial radio stations in total and not more than 4 commercial stations in the same service (AM or FM).

Consequently, grant of the instant application complies with the rules.

History

Berwick was founded by Evan Owen, a Welsh Quaker and surveyor. He was the son of Hugh Owen from Trefeglwys, Montgomeryshire, Wales. Berwick was named after Berwick-upon-Tweed, England. Situated on the north bank of the Susquehanna River, the borough was first settled in 1769, founded in 1786, and incorporated in 1818.

Light and heavy manufacturing industries, such as American Car and Foundry Company and Wise Potato Chips, have flourished in Berwick, which consolidated with the borough of West Berwick, where 5,512 people lived in 1910, in 1917. The population of Berwick in 1910 was 5,357; in 1920, after consolidation, the population was 12,181; and in 1950 the population peaked at 14,010. The population was 10,477 at the 2010 census.

Berwick is famous for its high school football team, the Bulldogs, who are six time state champions and three time national champions. Berwick is also the home of the 2008 PIAA AAA baseball state champions. It is the school's first ever baseball state championship.

Since 1947, the Berwick Christmas Boulevard, created by the Jaycees, displays over a mile long Christmas show of lights and displays down Market Street. The Berwick Christmas Boulevard is seen by thousands of visitors every year, and it has been a regional favorite for over 60 years.^[7] Santa Claus is present every year to serve Berwick's famous Wise Potato Chips to everyone who drives past him.

The Berwick Armory and Jackson Mansion and Carriage House are listed on the National Register of Historic Places.^[8] ^[9]

Geography

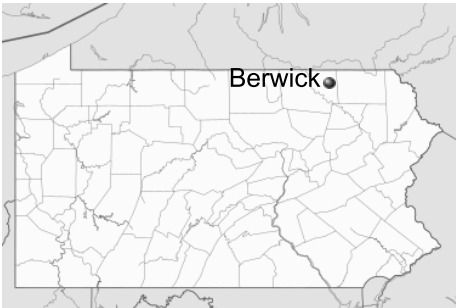

Berwick is located in Luzerne county and eastern Columbia County, bordered to the north by Briar Creek Township, to the west by Briar Creek borough, to the south across the Susquehanna River by Mifflin Township, and to the east by Salem Township in Luzerne County. The borough of Nescopeck in Luzerne County is to the southeast, across the Susquehanna. According to the United States Census Bureau, Berwick has a total area of 3.25 square miles (8.43 km²), of which 3.08 square miles (7.97 km²) is land and 0.18 square miles (0.46 km²), or 5.45%, is water.^[4]

U.S. Route 11 runs through the center of Berwick as Front Street (one-way northeast) and Second Street (one-way southwest). US 11 leads northeast 26 miles (42 km) to Kingston, across the Susquehanna from Wilkes-Barre, and southwest 12 miles (19 km) to Bloomsburg, the Columbia County seat. Pennsylvania Route 93 shares Front and Second Streets with US 11 in the center of Berwick, but turns south to cross the Susquehanna via the Market Street Bridge to Nescopeck.^[10] In the other direction, PA 93 splits west from US 11 as Orange Street and leads 10 miles (16 km) to Orangeville.

Interstate 80 passes south of Berwick, with the closest exits being at US 11, 6 miles (10 km) southwest of town, and at PA 93, 9 miles (14 km) southeast of town.

The eastern terminus of the Susquehanna, Bloomsburg, and Berwick Railroad used to be in Berwick.^[11] The Pennsylvania Canal (North Branch Division) formerly went along the Susquehanna River at Berwick, where there was a lock that raised or lowered canal boats 8.48 feet (2.5 meters).^[12]

Hispanic or Latino of any race were 1.62% of the population.

The Berwick area had a large influx of immigrants approximately between 1890–1920, which had a great impact on the current population that continues to this day. These immigrants included Slovaks, Ukrainians, Ruthenians, Lithuanians, and Poles. These immigrants were primarily Eastern Catholic and Roman Catholic.

There were 4,595 households, out of which 26.4% had children under the age of 18 living with them, 43.8% were married couples living together, 12.3% had a female householder with no husband present, and 39.0% were non-families. 33.6% of all households were made up of individuals, and 17.0% had someone living alone who was 65 years of age or older. The average household size was 2.28 and the average family size was 2.90.

In the borough the population was spread out, with 23.1% under the age of 18, 7.7% from 18 to 24, 27.1% from 25 to 44, 21.5% from 45 to 64, and 20.7% who were 65 years of age or older. The median age was 40 years. For every 100 females, there were 87.8 males. For every 100 females age 18 and over, there were 84.6 males.

The median income for a household in the borough was $27,442, and the median income for a family was $32,357. Males had a median income of $26,467 versus $21,061 for females. The per capita income for the borough was $14,538. About 9.6% of families and 14.9% of the population were below the poverty line, including 20.8% of those under age 18 and 11.1% of those age 65 or over.

Economy

Berwick was one of the places where the Stuart tank was produced in World War II, with over 15,000 of the tanks being manufactured at an American Car & Foundry plant in the town. The American Car & Foundry plant was also a producer of rolling stock for railroads. The borough is home to Berwick Offray, a gift ribbon manufacturing division of CSS Industries, and Wise Foods, a snack food company founded by Berwick native Earl Wise in the first half of the twentieth century, famous for its potato chips.
