Section 3: Supplemental Outreach Activities

1. Participation in Scholarship Programs

Emma L. Bowen Foundation for Minority Interests in Media, Inc.

Established in 1989, the Emma L. Bowen Foundation for Minority Interests in Media is a non-profit organization whose mission is to create career opportunities in the media industry for minority youth through a program that focuses on scholastic achievement, direct work experience and professional development. Students in the program work in media companies each summer and during school breaks, from high school through college. The students earn both salaries and scholarship funds to be used for college tuition and related expenses. Over a period of up to five years, the students experience numerous aspects of corporate operation and develop professional and practical skills that will help prepare them for their careers, many of which begin at the companies where the students interned. Fox Television Stations, LLC, has been a corporate partner in this program since its inception.

2. Career Fairs

Our stations regularly participate career/job fairs. Career Fairs provide applicants and potential candidates with the opportunity to learn about Fox Television Stations, LLC, and the job opportunities and internship/mentoring programs available with our group. Career Fairs for period include:
