

Certification Regarding FCC Violations
During the Preceding License Term

On November 8, 2019, the Media Bureau released a Memorandum Opinion and Order that addressed a good faith retransmission consent negotiation complaint filed against several broadcast licensees, including the Applicant, and found that the licensees violated the good faith negotiation standards raised in the complaint. See DIRECTV, LLC; AT&T Services, Inc., Mem. Op. & Order, MB Docket No. 19-168, 34 FCC Rcd 10367 (MB 2019). On December 9 2019, the Applicant, together with a number of the other licensees, filed an Application for Review of the Media Bureau's decision, arguing that the defendants had not committed any violation of the good faith negotiation requirements. On September 15, 2020, the Commission released a Memorandum Opinion and Order and Notice of Apparent Liability affirming the Bureau's decision. DIRECTV, LLC; AT&T Services, Inc., Mem. Op. & Order, MB Docket No. 19-168, FCC 20-122 (2020) ("Order and NAL"). The licensees filed a response to the Order and NAL on October 15, 2020. On July 26, 2021, the Commission released a Forfeiture Order against the Applicant and the other broadcast licensees, finding they had violated the good faith negotiation standards. DIRECTV, LLC; AT&T Services, Inc., Forfeiture Order, MB Docket No. 19-168, FCC 20-122 (2021) (the "Forfeiture Order"). On August 27, 2021, the Applicant, along with the other broadcast licensees, filed a petition for reconsideration of the Forfeiture Order, and that petition remains pending.
