

Amendment Concerning Status of TV Translator K17ML-D, Red River, New Mexico

As shown in the instant application for license renewal of license, KOB-TV, LLC (“KOB”) is the licensee of TV translator station K17ML-D, Red River, New Mexico (Facility ID 13459), which retransmits the signal of KOB. KOB leases space on an antenna structure for the operation of K17ML-D. On April 21, 2022, the antenna structure was damaged, essentially bent in half, by a severe wind storm. K17ML-D was destroyed at the same time. Consequently, K17ML-D is silent due to damage beyond KOB’s control. Pursuant to KOB’s application for special temporary authority (“STA”), K17ML-D currently is not broadcasting due to this damage, the STA for which has been granted by the Commission (LMS Application File No. 0000190086).
