

2022 Community Events

In March, Operations Manager Rich Stewart attended a mock interview day at the Penta Career Center to work with the students on interviewing skills. Meteorologist Jessica Van Meter visited Luther Meadow Senior Living in Gibsonburg and Luther Hills Senior Living in Oregon to discuss the weather with residents. In April, Jessica Van Meter visited Bedford High School science class to discuss the weather. On-Air Talent of "What's Going On", Morgan Kosinski attended Career Day at Anthony Wayne Junior High School.

In June, Red Cross Blood Drive sponsored by WNWO collected over 70 units of blood at the Zenobia Shrine in Perrysburg. In August, Show Host of "What's Going On" Toi Creel hosted the African-American Concert at Promedica Park. In October, Jessica Van Meter hosted Fostoria High School at the WNWO Studio to discuss weather and showed the students a behind-the-scenes look at a TV station. Toi Creel hosted the Urban Holistic Gala at TolHouse.

During the month of November, Rich Stewart worked with students of Penta Career Center on producing High School Choirs to be shown on WNWO. The Choirs were edited in segments for "What's Going On" and were also made into complete half-hour shows that aired over the Christmas Holiday. Jessica Van Meter hosted Hopewell Loudon's Broadcast/TV Production class at the WNWO Studios to discuss weather and show the students behind-the-scenes look at a TV station. For the final month of the year, the Red Cross Blood Drive sponsored by WNWO at the Hilton Garden Inn in Perrysburg, collected over 140 units of blood.
