

Reason for Engineering STA

Applicant is requesting an Engineering STA because the currently licensed facility is located on a tower which will be removed to make way for a housing development. Keeping K203CQ on the air at reduced ERP at a different temporary location will serve the public good.