

Silent STA Exhibit

Educational Media Foundation (EMF) requests and extension of the special temporary authority for FM translator station K300AE to remain silent. The translator is off the air while EMF works through its sale and relocation. A grant of this request is in the public interest as it will allow continued service to the residents of Breckenridge via K300AE when it resumes operations under new ownership.