

Statement Regarding Special Condition for Spurious Emissions Measurements

The broadcast transmitter and antenna facilities that share the subject antenna are time shared amongst all so authorized facilities. There exists only one transmitter and antenna, thus no more than one station can transmit using this antenna at a time. Thus, the special condition imposed upon the underlying construction permit requiring measurements for spurious emissions is moot.