

In His Name Radio Ministries

Educational Objectives

Our goal is to inspire, to bring vision, hope, encouragement, and comfort to the people of our region, while promoting those moral and spiritual values which will provoke fresh thinking, challenge excellence and anchor society in harmonious cooperation.

The preponderance of the programming to be broadcast on this proposed LPFM radio station will be of an educational nature, notably to promote good health (physical, mental, social and spiritual), solid, stable families, featuring instructional and character-building programming for both parents and children, Bible study, and general educational topics such as civics, history, science, the arts, culture and may include news, weather and reposing Christian music.
