

Purpose of Amendment

The application is amended to indicate that an FAA study has been filed for the existing tower, which has been determined to have been erected sometime prior to 1990.

The application will be updated to include an FCC Antenna Structure Registration number once the FAA Determination of No Hazard has been received.