ENGINEERING STATEMENT

The engineering data contained herein have been prepared on behalf of WCWF LICENSEE, LLC, licensee of full-power digital television station WCWF(TV), Channel 15 in Suring, Wisconsin, in support of its Application for Modification of License to operate the station with the ATSC 3.0 transmission standard. It is proposed that during the time that the facility will be transmitting in ATSC 3.0, the primary ATSC 1.0 programming of WCWF(TV) will be transmitted by station WLUK-TV, Channel 18 in Green Bay, Wisconsin.

Exhibit B is a map upon which the WCWF(TV) and WLUK-TV noise-limited service contours are plotted. As shown, the majority of the WCWF(TV) service contour overlaps that of WLUK-TV. Indeed, the “loss area” population that will be created as a result of the transfer of WCWF(TV)’s primary ATSC 1.0 programming to WLUK-TV is only 0.1% of the total service population of WCWF(TV), according to the 2018 U.S. Census Estimate data. And, a significant amount of gain area (comprising 136,091 people) will be created by the move of the WCWF(TV) ATSC 1.0 primary programming to WLUK-TV.

Therefore, this proposal meets Section 73.3801(f)(6)(ii) of the FCC Rules, which requires that the new ATSC 1.0 host station cover at least 95% of the service population of the station that elects to operate under the new ATSC 3.0 format. As a result, expedited processing of this proposal is respectfully requested and believed to be justified.

It is also important to note that WLUK-TV places a city-grade service contour over the entirety of the WCWF(TV) city of license, Suring, Wisconsin, as shown in Exhibit C. This is not unexpected, since WLUK-TV operates from the same transmitter site as that of WCWF(TV) and is licensed to a community in the same Designated Market Area (DMA) as WCWF(TV).

Thus, the instant application meets the requirements of Section 73.3801(c) of the Commission's Rules.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing statements and the attached exhibits, which were prepared by me or under my immediate supervision, are true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.
