

No Environmental Assessment is required because there is no change in the tower structure. This application is to replace a non-functioning antenna.

For RF guidelines, please see accompanying Engineering Report.