

Application explanation

As recommended by FCC staff, the instant Application is tendered for the purpose of a “paper” correction of geographical coordinates and RCAMSL only. There will be no physical or technical changes from the currently licensed installation.