Letter of Inquiry – Response Required

Dear Counsel:

This letter concerns the above-referenced application of World Federation of Pastors and Ministers of the Full Gospel, Inc. (World Federation) for a construction permit for a new noncommercial educational (NCE) FM station in Country Squire Lakes, Indiana (World Federation Application).¹ The Media Bureau (Bureau) identified the World Federation Application as the tentative selectee of NCE MX Group 95.² Subsequently, Lushomo Health Education Centre (Lushomo) and New Beginnings Movement, Inc. (New Beginnings) each filed a Petition to Deny the World Federation Application (Lushomo Petition³ and New Beginnings Petition,⁴ respectively). World Federation filed an Opposition to the Lushomo Petition (Lushomo Opposition)⁵ and an Opposition to the New Beginnings Petition (New Beginnings Opposition).⁶ Lushomo filed a Reply (Lushomo Reply).⁷ The Bureau sent a letter of inquiry (LOI) to World Federation (First LOI),⁸ World Federation submitted a response (LOI Response),⁹ and Lushomo submitted comments to the LOI Response (Lushomo LOI Comments).¹⁰

The Bureau is investigating potential violations of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (Act), and the Commission's rules (rules), including potential misrepresentation and/or lack of candor in connection with the World Federation Application, the Lushomo Opposition, and the New Beginnings Opposition.¹¹ Specifically, the Bureau is investigating: (a) the validity of information provided in and certifications made in the World Federation Application; and (b) the validity of information provided in the Lushomo Opposition and the New Beginnings Opposition. Accordingly, pursuant to sections 4(i), 4(j), 308(b), and 403 of the Act, we direct World Federation to provide the information and documents specified in Attachment A to this letter within 30 days of the date of this LOI.

Background

Lushomo Petition. The Lushomo Petition argues that World Federation is part of a "consolidated enterprise" that includes four licensed low power FM (LPFM) stations in Florida (Florida LPFM Stations) and C.E.L.A. International University Inc. (CIU).¹² Lushomo alleges that World Federation has an attributable interest in the Florida LPFM Stations, and that grant of the World Federation Application would therefore violate the cross-ownership restrictions in section 73.860 of the rules.¹³ It bases this claim on World Federation's connection to Fermin Castaneda (Castaneda), who is a former common director of CIU, the Florida LPFM Stations, and World Federation, as well as World Federation director Sonia Valdez (Valdez).¹⁴ In addition, Lushomo argues that Nestor Gabriel Kost (Kost), who is the president of CIU, a director of one of the Florida LPFM Stations, and World Federation's founder and former director, "continues to exert de facto control over [World Federation] and is therefore an impermissible undisclosed real-party-[in]-interest."¹⁵ Lushomo bases its allegation regarding Kost, in part, on information found on World Federation's website.¹⁶

In the Lushomo Opposition, World Federation states that it "has no involvement" with CIU or the Florida LPFM Stations.¹⁷ It further states that "even if" Lushomo's allegation of undisclosed attributable interests is accurate, it has no bearing on the outcome of the World Federation Application because such attributable interests would not have impacted the Commission's identification of World Federation as the tentative selectee in NCE MX Group 95, as attributable interests were not a factor in the selection.¹⁸ Regarding Kost, World Federation states that, while Kost "continues to serve as an advisor to the organization, he retains no control over the organization."¹⁹ World Federation also asserts that the Lushomo Petition references an old website for its allegation regarding Kost, and that Lushomo "pointedly failed" to provide the Commission with the current website.²⁰

In its reply, Lushomo argues that World Federation does not deny that it has an attributable interest in the Florida LPFM Stations, and reiterates its argument that grant of the World Federation Application would violate the Commission's cross-ownership rules.²¹ In addition, Lushomo states that World Federation does not adequately explain the ties between Kost, CIU, and World Federation.²² Lushomo also asserts that World Federation's current website was created after the Lushomo Petition was filed, and that World Federation was therefore disingenuous in accusing Lushomo of failing to provide the current website to the Commission.²³

New Beginnings Petition. The New Beginnings Petition asserts, inter alia, that World Federation’s “Florida Secretary of State records leave some question as to whom [World Federation’s] principals actually are.”²⁴

In the New Beginnings Opposition, World Federation states that “the identities of the principals named in the Application are accurate at this time.”²⁵ World Federation also states that Castaneda was an accountant for World Federation, that he became a director on May 6, 2022, and that he resigned on August 22, 2022, due to “the confusion being generated by his service as a Member of the Board.”²⁶

First LOI. In the First LOI, the Bureau requested information from World Federation regarding: (1) World Federation’s alleged relationships with CIU, the Florida LPFM Stations, and Kost; (2) Castaneda’s involvement with World Federation, CIU, and the Florida LPFM Stations; (3) financial information; and (4) information regarding World Federation’s directors and website.²⁷

In the LOI Response, World Federation states that Kost, who is now deceased, “initiated the process needed for World Federation to file the Application, [which] included engaging the services of Maria Guel and her father.”²⁸ Furthermore, World Federation does not deny that Castaneda was simultaneously a director of World Federation, the Florida LPFM Stations, and CIU, but states that Castaneda did not coordinate work between these organizations.²⁹ World Federation also submits invoices from its attorney and engineer, and states that the invoices “are in the process of being paid.”³⁰ In addition, it states that the phone numbers it listed in the World Federation Application are incorrect,³¹ and acknowledges that its new website was created on or about the same day that it filed the Lushomo Opposition.³²

In the Lushomo LOI Comments, Lushomo states that Kost’s hiring of Maria Guel and her father, and the incorrect phone numbers on the World Federation Application, raise questions about who prepared the application.³³ It also states that World Federation’s acknowledgment that Castaneda was simultaneously a director of World Federation, the Florida LPFM Stations, and CIU is disqualifying because World Federation did not commit to divest the Florida LPFM Stations.³⁴ In addition, Lushomo questions World Federation’s financial qualifications because World Federation has not paid the invoices
