

This amendment provides more information on the activities of The Beach, a Texas non-profit association, and describes how its organizational structure is consistent with the requirements of Texas law.