

Constructed Facility

Due to transmission line length, the transmitter output power as constructed turns out to be 1.84 kW which is slightly different from the transmitter output power of 1.8 kW authorized in the construction permit. However, there is no change in the maximum ERP of the station