

The applicant certifies that this application does not require an environmental assessment as required in section 1.1306 of 47 CFR. Additionally, the applicant certifies that, in coordination with other users of each transmitter site, it will reduce power or cease operation as necessary to protect persons having access to each site, transmitter or antenna from radio frequency electromagnetic exposure in excess of FCC guidelines