

Antenna Support Structure - Response to d(1) and d(2)

The antenna support structure was built in 2001, per the applicable engineering codes of Alabama. The tower has been periodically maintained, as required, but no structural analysis has been performed after the construction.