

KAXW-LD went off the air on March 4, 2016 because of structural problems with the station's tower. As previously reported, tower modifications are underway. However, since the tower owner is unsure when the modifications will be completed, KAXW-LD hereby requests an extension of special temporary authority to remain silent.