

Amendment

This amendment is being filed at the request of the Commission staff to make clear that the grant of the extension requested herein will not delay the implementation of the repacking of the television band as the testing period for stations in Phase 1 of the repacking does not even begin until September 14, 2018, after any extension requested by WFMZ.