

Justification for Arizona State University's translator STA Extension

This STA allows the licensee to operate the translator on a lower, in-band channel because it has been displaced by a wireless company that acquired the spectrum in the Forward Auction. Extension of the STA is needed to permit continued operations until the Commission places the companion application for permanent authority on a proposed grant list for processing.