

Legal Certifications

In certifying “yes” to the two “Holding Period” certifications, Applicant is certifying that it is not proposing a modification to an authorization that was awarded based on the award of certain preferences within the prior four years and that the station is currently operating pursuant to subsequent authorized modifications.