

Environmental Statement

The antenna and mounting structure is located within a completely locked and fenced area that is not accessible to the general public. The area is signed to advise that high RF fields exist. The applicant will reduce power as necessary to ensure that safety of workers.