

Attributable Interests

Because the instant application is an application for license to cover a construction permit for a minor change to allow displacement relief, and because the applicant is a noncommercial educational licensee, information as to attributable interests held is not required and is irrelevant. Likewise, information as to attributable interest holders is not required.