

Attachment B

Under the terms of the District's tower site lease, if a site survey determines that the new construction will exceed the boundaries of the leased premises, the District must obtain the consent of the lessor. The District is currently negotiating the terms of a new lease that will allow it to extend the boundaries of the current leased premises.