Wednesday, March 20, 2019 3:37 PM The National Weather Service in California is conducting their annual Tsunami test on March 27th, at approximately 10:15 AM. The test will use the Event Code RMT, but the script will reference the "national tsunami warning system". This is not a test for Nevada, and if received on your EAS equipment, it should not be rebroadcast!

The March RMT for Southern Nevada/Inyo County, California is scheduled to be launched at 2:20 PM on March 27th by the Clark County Emergency Operations Center. You will have 60 minutes to rebroadcast the test.

Monday, March 18, 2019 3:45 pm The Las Vegas WFO did NOT send an RWT last Wednesday (3/13/2019). Their equipment was down for maintenance.
