

Statement Regarding Discrimination Complaints

Licensee is a public university and part of the University System of Maryland (“USM”), which consists of 12 universities and 3 regional centers. From time to time, complaints are filed against the university and/or USM. However, during the license term, no complaints have been filed which relate to the operation of the station, none have been resolved adversely, and there are none now pending.