

Exhibit

Operations Certification

The station was acquired by the current licensee on November 10, 2015. Prior to the parties closing on the assignment of license, the former licensee turned off the station on August 18, 2015. The current licensee put the station back on the air on November 19, 2015. Accordingly, the station was silent for just over three months.