

Multiple Ownership Issues Irrelevant to Application for License to Cover Displacement Construction Permit for Low Power Television Station

The owners of LR Telecasting LLC have reported their other broadcast interests previously (see BALCDT-20160108AAQ), but in any event such information is completely irrelevant to an application for a license to cover a displacement construction permit for a low power television station.