

DISCRIMINATION COMPLAINT

To the Licensee's knowledge, no such complaints have been filed except for the following:

In 2018, a former employee filed a complaint with the EEOC, Charge No. 410-2019-01911, alleging discrimination on the basis of gender, and retaliation. The EEOC sent a letter of dismissal and notice of rights on January 30, 2019 stating: "Based upon its investigation, the EEOC is unable to conclude that information obtained establishes violations of the statutes." To the Licensee's knowledge, no further filings or actions were taken.
