

A typographical error on the renewal application as filed makes necessary the filing of this amendment to correct the primary station call sign listed for the station.

Please note that this error was only made on the application, and that the notice published in the local newspaper reflected the correct primary station call sign.