

Narrative Statement of Outreach Efforts

Public Radio, Inc. seeks to achieve broad and inclusive outreach. Examples of the efforts made by this station include establishing a broadcast internship program for students to acquire broadcasting knowledge and skills, participating in programs related to career opportunities in broadcasting sponsored by educational institutions and participating in programs with community organizations whose membership consists primarily of women.

For details concerning the outreach efforts undertaken by this station, please see the attached EEO Public File Reports.

During the two-year period covered by this Broadcast Equal Employment Opportunity Program Report through the date of its filing, this station has experienced no notable difficulties in its outreach efforts.