

All of the preempted programs during the reporting period were made good in their second homes within seven days before or seven days after the respective preemption, except for the regularly scheduled November 3, 2019 episode of "Hearts of Heroes", which was made good in the program's second home but aired outside the seven-day window on November 17, 2019.