Attachment Regarding Felony Convictions

The Blanchard River Broadcasting Company, Inc. is a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Findlay Publishing Company. Mr. Alex T. Gordon holds 9.5 percent of the voting stock of the Findlay Publishing Company and 7.3 percent of its equity. Mr. Gordon is not involved in the management of any of the Blanchard River Broadcasting Company, Inc. radio stations. He is not an officer of the Findlay Publishing Company, or of the Blanchard River Broadcasting Company, Inc.

On October 30, 2014, Mr. Gordon was convicted in the Lorain County (Ohio) Common Pleas Court of possession of a controlled substance and was sentenced on September 23, 2015, in lieu of conviction, to comply with probation department orders. The case was closed.

On January 14, 2015, Mr. Gordon was convicted in the Hancock County (Ohio) Common Pleas Court of possession of a controlled substance and was sentenced on April 6, 2016 to spend 120 days at the Western Ohio Regional Treatment and Habilitation Center. Mr. Gordon successfully completed that treatment between April 15, 2016 and August 15, 2016, whereupon he was released on probation, which is expected to be completed in April 2021.

Mr. Gordon has not had any further incidents, nor any accusations of wrongdoing since prior to January of 2015. Mr. Gordon enjoys a positive reputation in the Ohio community in which he resides. His rehabilitation treatment between April of 2016 and August of 2016 was successfully completed. Neither of the two felony convictions involved the subject radio stations in any way whatsoever, and neither felony constituted a crime involving moral turpitude.
