

The licensee did not upload some of its issues and programs lists to the online public inspection file in a timely manner. It took staff some time to fully understand the functionality of the online system and transition the paper public files to the online public file.