Dear Lee—

I hope you are well. I am writing to ask about the status of the above referenced station. During my review of this station's short term renewal application and record, I found that it lost its licensed site in 2018, and was operating pursuant to technical STA at a different site until January 3, 2020, when the last STA expired. No STA to remain silent or to continue operation pursuant to the technical STA or CP application is on file, and the renewal does not mention it. Please file the appropriate silent or technical STA to show the operating status of the station and also amend the renewal application if it is silent. Also let me know when you file, so I can review the renewal. Thanks.
