

Explanation of Amendment

This amendment is submitted at FCC request to resolve a power/height issue. The engineering submitted with this application had been based on the coverage of the largest station in the market at the time it was submitted in 2017. But the largest station then is no longer the largest station in the market, and the instant amendment proposes revised technical parameters based on the coverage of the station that currently is the largest in KVIE's market.