

Antenna Installed

The antenna installed, as reflected in this application, is the make and model specified in the construction permit but is a used antenna made available to the licensee for use. The licensee anticipates that this use will be on a temporary basis and that it will replace the used antenna with a new antenna of that will produce the same directional pattern. Any and all necessary applications or amendments will be submitted upon such replacement.