

KSNV addressed the educational and informational needs of children in our community through a combination of programming, PSAs, public appearances, community service and studio tours to local youth groups.

Virtual Studio tours were conducted by Meteorologist Kevin Janison for: O'Callaghan Middle School Students on 9/25/20, 3rd Graders at Bartlett Elementary on 11/9/20 and 2nd Graders at Helen Smith Elementary on 11/16/20.

Visits to schools by on-air personalities included: Anchor Dana Wagner read to 3rd Graders at Harmon Elementary on 3/2/20 and 2nd Graders at Roger Bryan Elementary on 3/5/20. Meteorologist Kevin Janison did entire school reading presentations for Vanderburg Elementary on 1/29/20, American Heritage Academy on 2/19/20, St. Anne's Catholic School on 2/27/20 and Pittman Elementary on 3/6/20.

In-Person/Virtual Community events attended by on-air personalities included: Anchors Kim and Dana Wagner and Meteorologist Chloe Beardsley emceed Walk for Wishes on 3/7/20. Reporter Gaby Hart hosted a virtual event for SAFY Nevada on 4/24/20. Anchor Heather Mills did a virtual reading of "Reading Beauty" for Story Time Online for LVCC Library District on 5/22/20 and virtually emceed St. Jude's Heart of Fashion on 6/19/20.

In-Studio/Virtual Interviews included: Prom Night to Remember on 2/18/20, St. Baldrick's Foundation on 3/2/20, Children's Discovery Museum on 4/28/20, Grant a Gift Autism Foundation on 4/29/20, Author of "Anna and the Germ that Came to Visit" on 5/4/20, Cowabunga Bay on 5/20/20, Public Education Foundation on 5/25/20, St. Jude Children's Research Hospital on 6/1/20, Clark County Library District on 6/3/20, Communities in Schools on 6/17/20, Broadway in the Hood on 10/10/20, Adam's Place on 11/1/20, Devotedly Daddy on 11/14/20 and Positively Arts on 12/18/20.

"Make-A-Wish Monday" is a regular segment in KSNV newscasts that features children diagnosed with life-threatening medical conditions that have their wishes granted by the Make-A-Wish Foundation.